

Ras Al Khaimah to expand bilateral business ties with Congo

H.H. Sheikh Saud bin Saqr Al Qasimi, Crown Prince and Deputy Ruler of Ras Al Khaimah , held talks with the Industry Minister of the Democratic Republic of Congo and reviewed the progress in the implementation of various economic partnerships forged between Ras Al Khaimah and the Democratic Republic of Congo.

Sheikh Saud said that Ras Al Khaimah is keen to explore investment opportunities in Congo across various sectors. 'Congo has vast potential and we would like to participate in the country's development which will enable it to attain its full growth potential. What we are looking for is a strong partnership that would enable Ras Al Khaimah based entities to use their expertise and investments in forging mutually beneficial ties,' he said.

In recent times bilateral business relations have been forged between Ras Al Khaimah and Congo, with several Ras Al Khaimah Government entities announcing large investments in the mineral-rich central African country.
