

University of Bolton, Ras Al Khaimah, announces a scholarship program

The University of Bolton, Ras Al Khaimah , has announced that it will award up to 60 merit-based partial scholarships to students enrolling on programmes at the graduate and post-graduate levels across 14 disciplines at the university's new campus in Ras Al Khaimah.

Through the University of Bolton, Ras Al Khaimah, UAE Scholarship Program, students can pursue their academic and career goals without the financial difficulties that make it difficult for so many young people to attend university.

The University of Bolton, RAK, UAE Scholarship Program students who apply and subsequently qualify can pursue any field of undergraduate or post graduate study at the Ras Al Khaimah campus.

Scholarships will not be limited to students from the UAE; they will be made available to students across examination boards and education systems.